

Electrical Safe work practices – Hands on evaluation

Train the Trainer

4 hour COURSE OVERVIEW

This course provides a template approach to proctoring a qualified electrical worker electrical safety training hands on audit.

This course teaches a simple method for evaluating a workers application of electrical safe work practices on The SSC training demonstration board that allows a worker to demonstrate their proficiency in the required safety concepts needed to be a qualified electrical worker in a classroom environment without the risk of injury.

This course is for:

- Electricians
- Safety directors/managers
- Managers or decisions makers

This safety training hands on audit for anyone who wants to be consider for classification as a “Qualified Electrical Worker”!

(Course Outline):

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explanation of template approach</li> <li>• Explanation of template audit spreadsheet</li> <li>• 1 evaluator approach</li> <li>• Committee evaluation approach</li> </ul> Evaluation to measure a worker ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PPE and other protective equipment                             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Selection, inspection, and use</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Electrical Safety Program requirements</li> <li>• Apply Lock out Tag out requirements</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Proper use of Approach boundaries</li> <li>• Properly interpreting warning labels</li> <li>• Ability to read 1-line diagrams</li> <li>• Electrical Risk Assessment examples</li> <li>• Proper use of 70E tables vs incident energy analysis</li> <li>• Proper job planning</li> <li>• Proper documentation</li> <li>• Work area set up decisions</li> <li>• Proper use of interlocks</li> </ul> |
|--|--|

Course will include:

- Course completion certificate
- Proctored audit by each attendee that will be critiqued by both the instructor and the group for added support